Hoffa Guilty of Defraud, U.S. Jury Finds

By SEYMOUR M. HERSH

CHICAGO (AP)—A jury out for three days found Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa and six others guilty Sunday of a massive scheme to defraud a $280-million union pension fund.

Hoffa, a trustee of the pension fund, was convicted in U.S. District Court on four counts of fraud and conspiracy and faces 20 years in prison and an $11,000 fine.

Each codefendant was found guilty of at least one fraud charge and one of conspiracy. The indictment included 20 mail fraud charges and one conspiracy charge.

The men specifically were convicted of fraudulently obtaining more than $20 million in loans from the pension fund and diverting more than $1 million to their own use.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy hailed the decision and commended the jury and prosecutors in a statement from his summer home in Hyannis Port, Mass.

Hoffa faces a maximum sentence of $1,000 fine and five years on each of the fraud counts and $10,000 and five years on the conspiracy count.

It was Hoffa's fifth federal prosecution since 1957—and his second loss in six months. In February he was sentenced to eight years in prison and fined $10,000 at Chattanooga, Tenn., for attempting to bribe a jury. He has appealed that conviction.

The stocky union leader nervously paced the courtroom floor while waiting for the jury to return its verdict, but showed little outward emotion afterwards.

The case went to the jury Friday after 13 weeks of testimony and sparring between prosecution and defense.

It took two weeks for opposing attorneys to agree on the eight-man, four-woman jury. During the trial, the jurors were kept under lock and key at the Great Lakes Naval Base 30 miles north of Chicago and permitted only one monitored telephone call per day.

The jury returned separate findings on 147 charges — 21 naming each defendant. They had deliberated 17½ hours, returning to Great Lakes Friday and Saturday nights.

Judge Richard A. Austin set Aug. 17 for rulings on motions made immediately by defense attorneys for arrest of judgment, a directed verdict of acquittal despite the jury's findings, or a new trial. He ruled the defendants could remain free under present bond arrangements until the hearings.

Walsh said he planned to appeal Hoffa's conviction. One defendant, Benjamin Dranow, 56, a former Minneapolis businessman now serving a prison term for tax fraud, was returned to jail.

The government's conspiracy conviction resulted from its charge that Hoffa and the others schemed to rescue Hoffa from a falling investment in a real estate project near Orlando, Fla.

Besides Hoffa and Dranow, the defendants are: Samuel Hyman, Calvin Kovens and Abe I. Weinblatt of Miami Beach; Zachard Strate Jr. of New Orleans and S. George Burris of New York.

Herbert Burris of New York, son of George, was freed on a directed verdict during the trial.

Weekend Bloody in N.Y. Racial Strife

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—This riot-scarred city emerged today from a bloody weekend of racial violence with four dead, hundreds of injured and massive property damage. An uneasy peace was backed by a combat-ready force of National Guardsmen.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller activated 1,000 guardsmen and ordered them into Rochester to stand by for anti-riot duty if needed.

"Law and order will be maintained in the city of Rochester," the governor declared.

A detachment of 12 open trucks with 18 guardsmen each toured the city's trouble areas in a show of force shortly after the arrival of the guard Sunday night. The men carried rifles with bayonets fixed but had no ammunition.

Three persons were killed and a county official was injured critically Sunday when a three-story house and set it afire.

A man was killed by an automobile when he was struck during wild rioting Saturday night, in the height of the racial explosion, and staggered into the street. Two men were shot. One was in critical condition.

More than 600 persons, nearly all Negroes, were arrested. More than 300 other persons were injured, including 35 police officers and several firemen.

Thousands of Negroes participated in rioting throughout the weekend, but police had no estimate of the exact number.

Looters ran wild, pillaging and smashing, especially Saturday night. Liquor stores were favorite targets.

Many rioters were "all fired up on stolen booze," a police official said.

State and local police, working with little rest, were targets of bricks, rocks, bottles, full beer cans, fire bombs and sheets of glass in one outbreak after another.

They answered with tear gas, high-pressure streams from fire hoses and warning shots from their guns. Several individual rioters were clubbed into submission when seized.

The Rochester jail was jammed and a clerk said the property room was filled with "everything you can think of" in recovered loot.

The job of trying to keep down the riot was proving a difficult one for the tired police officers, a factor in the decision of city officials to appeal for help from the guard.

"We were fighting a defensive battle," a high police official said.

A dawn-to-dusk curfew was imposed, although there was widespread defiance in the Negro sections.

The sale of all liquor, guns and ammunition was halted in defiance.

The peak of the rioting occurred Saturday night in the

Negro Youths Taking Part in New York Riots More Like Animals Than Human Beings

EDITOR'S NOTE—The nation has often seen disciplined, well-behaved Negro youths take part in civil rights demonstrations. But the riots in New York and Rochester have brought a different breed to the fore: Young men who heed no leader, follow no banner, and seem to despise non-violence. Here is a closeup of the hard ones.

By BERNARD GAVZER

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—An exhausted fireman fled by heavy smoke was wheeled from a flaming house in Rochester's riot-ravaged Negro section.

"He should have got burned up long ago," a Negro boy said. Here in the brilliant sunshine of a Sunday afternoon the boy and hundreds of other Negroes had watched a gruesome drama.

A helicopter being used to spot potential riot activity had hit the peaked gable of the frame house, fallen to the sidewalk, exploded and burned. The white pilot was killed. Two persons in the house, presumably Negroes, turned to death.

For some in the crowd, the spectacle was sickening and sobering. They were mainly older people. A minister, a chef, a mechanic. But the young fellows, the lean and well-muscled teen-agers and men in their early 20s, shed no tears.

Their attitude throughout rioting that began Friday night has been one of militant recklessness. There is a bravado to them—and the chill quality of boys who have begun to believe that life is a one way road to death and they are on it, put there by white men.

The role of young Negroes in Rochester parallels that of those who met police in hand-to-hand battle in Harlem and in Brooklyn's Bedford-Stuyvesant section.

"There's a don't care attitude about these boys," said Ernest Denny, a Negro social worker. "They're saying to the white society, 'You're going to kill me psychologically if I live, so why not kill me with bullets'."

"The thing is that they are not afraid. These are brave boys," he said. "They have lost respect for authority," said Lt. Andrew Sparacino, head of the Rochester Police Department's youth division.

Boys and young men from the major Negro areas in town voiced bitter resentment of whites, especially of the police, and talked with a belligerent straightforwardness.

"Man, there ain't no cat going to frighten me," said a youth of 19. "They kicked that out of me when they kicked hell out of me one time when they busted a crap game. They grabbed the dough and then used the clubs."

A boy of 14 who wore a wrist wound proudly, said: "We are just different. My mama and pa, if it was up to them, would be locked me in the house last night. They scared. But they old and old peoples get scared. I went out and I stayed out. I didn't make it back home to maybe 4 o'clock in the morning. But nobody's going to tell me what to do."

A young man of 20 bristled over the 8 p.m. to 7 a.m. curfew imposed upon the city.

"The man comes on TV and he say all you people got to go to bed at 8 o'clock and not stick your nose out the house. Hell, that just make the people be on the street. You think we afraid to go out? Man, we was out."

Lloyd Hurst, a Negro who is commissioner of Rochester's office of the State Commission for Human Relations, said, "The young element—the new Negro—is in Rochester as well as Harlem and elsewhere in the United States. They have lost faith in the ordinary forms of settlement of grievances."

Reginald Kenneth Ingram, the Negro chief of the Air Force's Equal Employment Opportunity Office, said, "If I were to try to say to these boys that they should act with caution or even try to advise them in any way, I'm certain that I would be hooded."

The boys showed how willing they were to flex muscles Friday night at the street dance when patrolmen Roger Bacon and Anthony Cerretto attempted to arrest a disorderly young man.

"We ended up on the ground with the guy, putting the cuffs on him," said Cerretto. "The crowd wanted him and they got between us."

Fifty or more young men pushed in to keep the handcuffed youth from being taken to the police station. It was this incident that started the riot.

Sparacino, the youth division expert, knows by sight most of the city's juvenile delinquents and other young offenders.

"But to tell you the truth," he said, "these are kids I've never seen before. They're not the usual juvenile delinquents. I don't know where they come from. I know one we got in a good high school and another is an athlete in high school."

Members of the Hope National Guard Unit completed preparations Saturday and Sunday for two weeks of annual active duty training at Fort Polk, La., August 1-15.

During the weekend drill periods the men received refresher courses and packed necessary equipment for use at Fort Polk.

The unit, Company B, is commanded by Lt. Kenneth Richert of Texarkana.

Lieutenant Richert said the unit will leave Hope at 6 a.m. August 1 for Fort Polk. The active duty training will consist of week of classes in the cantonment area of the base and a week of field training, Lieutenant Richert said.

The unit will undergo intensive specialist training to help the transition to a new 39th Division structure which went into effect less than three months ago.

Under the National Guard plan a man with no prior service can enlist for six months active duty training and then fulfill his military obligation by attending monthly drills in his home town. The Guard also has a program for prior service men.

Four girls from Hope will leave August 2 for the adventure of their lives. These Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts are going to "Little Roundup", an intercouncil primitive encampment to be held August 2-13 on the shores of Lake Texarkana, near Douglasville, Texas.

The Scouts from Hope who will attend the encampment are as follows: Susan Rogers, Sue King, Molly Tolleson and Carolyn Millican.

The Conifer Council Scouts will join 120 other Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts from four other Girl Scout Councils: Ouachita Girl Scout Council, Little Rock, Arkansas; Arkansas Post Girl Scout Council, Inc., Pine Bluff, Arkansas; Northwest Mississippi Girl Scout Council, Greenwood, Mississippi; and Silver Waters Girl Scout Council, Monroe, Louisiana.

The purpose of the encampment is to make opportunities of this kind available to more girls. . . and to help girls and Councils in preparation for the next National Senior Girl Scout Roundup to be held in Idaho in 1965.

Electrical Use in Hope Hits Record

The Hope Municipal Electric System shattered all previous records, for both total load and kilowatt hours used, during the month of July, according to City Manager, Garland Medders.

The peak load for the month, which was recorded at 2:30 p.m. July 8, was 8,854 kilowatts. The peak load in July last year was 7,476 kilowatts. Total kilowatt hours used during the month were 3,990,000, compared to 3,468,000 for the same period last year. According to Medders, the August peak should exceed this month's record figure.

The growth of Hope's Municipal Electric System has been phenomenal since the old generating plant was put on standby service. The annual increase load during the past seven years, has been over 14 per cent, while the national growth for electric utilities has been less than 8 per cent.

In July 1957, the last year the light plant was operated, the peak load, which also occurred in July, was 4,224 kilowatts, and the total kilowatt hours used were 2,033,000. The record load this month was more than double this figure and the kilowatt hours used were almost exactly doubled.

In explaining the reasons for the unusual growth, Mr. Medders said that quite a lot of it is due to new industrial loads and increase in existing industrial and commercial loads. He said, however, that the system load was poorly developed at the beginning of this period due to lack of plant capacity and poor voltage conditions throughout the system. The system has now been almost fully rebuilt and can handle heavy loads and furnish good voltage at almost any point in the area. He said that the Hope Water & Light Plant had been, and will continue to work closely with dealers in promoting full use of electric power.

Lowest Vote in 20 Years Is Predicted

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Only one of the four candidates for governor — Odell Dorsey — planned any 11th hour campaigning today on the eve of the Democratic primary.

Dorsey booked time on two television stations (KARK and KTHV) for a 30-minute talk between 9 and 9:30 p.m.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus, the sixth term candidate, rested in Huntsville, his home town. He ended his campaign Saturday.

Faubus, Dorsey, Joe Hubbard of Russellville and R. D. Burrow of Walnut Ridge are the contestants in a governor's race marked by a lack of campaigning and a lack of interest among voters.

David D. Glover, chief deputy secretary of state who has been forecasting election turnouts for years, predicted a total vote of "305,000 or less."

And, Glover noted, the odds are good that the vote will be much less. "There's just no interest anywhere," he said.

Except for a number of hot local races over the state, the vote total probably would fall down around 200,000. That would be the lowest total in 20 years. The lowest total in recent history was cast in 1942 when Gov. Homer M. Adkins was lightly opposed in his second term bid.

But television fans can't look to an uninterrupted evening just because the candidates for governor are passing up the airwaves.

The time on Little Rock stations, for example, is almost solidly booked by local candidates and by the foes in the hotly contested 4th District congressional race between Rep. Oren Harris and Dan Murphy of Hope.

Faubus traditionally has made an election eve appeal for votes, but he has indicated this year that he doesn't expect much too

Final Offer to Red China by Kremlin

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Premier Khrushchev's brief stay in Poland may herald yet another international Communist conference and a Soviet last chance offer to Red China to get in line with the Kremlin.

The Russians now want, quickly, a meeting of 26 Communist parties — those which served on the drafting committee for the 13,000 word Moscow declaration which resulted from the Red world conference of 1960. That declaration was supposed to be a blueprint for world Communist strategy and tactics.

The 26 member conference would be assigned the job of preparing for a new fullness world meeting.

A Soviet letter to Peking published July 17 — one of a long series of acrimonious exchanges — says many factional groups within parties around the world, sponsored by the Chinese, claim to be real representatives of the Communist but "neither in theory nor in practice support the general line of the world Communist movement."

The Chinese would try to get such parties into a world meeting, the letter indicates. Khrushchev, apparently, has taken steps to parry any such attempt. There are parties, the Soviet letter says, which have emerged since 1960 and could be invited, but only those who attended the 1960 meeting and signed the declaration should be considered capable of interpreting it.

That would rule out some groups from underdeveloped areas, where the Chinese are particularly strong among impatient Communists.

The 1960 conference was attended by 81 Communist parties of which 26 were assigned to draft the declaration.

The new letter says a meeting of the 26 to prepare for a bigger meeting is "urgent" in view of harm done the world Communist movement by Peking's attitude. The Chinese have said a world conference could wait four or five years, but Khrushchev has no intention of giving the Chinese an opportunity to pick up strength over a long period.

The Chinese apparently think that by putting off the meeting they can increase their support and "turn them into weapons of their own policy, thus creating favorable conditions for themselves," the Moscow letter said.

There is strong indication in the letter that the Kremlin is offering the Chinese their last chance to end the feud.

The letter implies the Chinese, if they continue to obstruct the Faubus recently cancelled a 30-minute program scheduled for tonight and the time was immediately taken up by the Committee for the Two-Party System, an organization backed by Winthrop Rockefeller, the Republican candidate for governor. Imposition of the Republicans into an evening traditionally reserved for Democrats is an indication that political observers are correct when they say that this year's main race for governor will be between Faubus and Rockefeller in the general election in November.

4th District Race Was the Liveliest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The two contestants in the lively 4th Congressional District race — Rep. Oren Harris and Dean Murphy — and gubernatorial candidate Odell Dorsey will make last-minute television appeals tonight on the eve of Tuesday's Democratic primary election. Murphy, a Hope businessman, has waged the most active campaign among the congressional hopefuls. Saturday he termed Harris "the weakest man in the national Congress," in reply to a statement by Harris that Murphy did not have the experience or education to be a congressman.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who has indicated he doesn't expect too much of a battle from his three Democratic opponents, will not be on an election eve primary.

He cancelled a broadcast-television spot for tonight, and Saturday the Committee for the Two-Party System announced it had bought the time. The committee will show a film entitled "Take Two," about a two-party system, and will stage a discussion between a Democratic and Republican candidate for state senate.

Harris will be on KTHV (Channel 11) and KARK-TV (Channel 4) at 8 p.m. Murphy will be on KARK-TV at 7:15 p.m. and Dorsey will be on KARK-TV at 9 p.m.

In gubernatorial campaigning Sunday, Joe Hubbard of Russellville said he saw the Democratic primary situation as being the same as in 1940, when Homer Adkins defeated the incumbent, Carl Bailey.

"It was considered a political miracle when Adkins won," Hubbard said. He added that he expects the same kind of miracle Tuesday, with himself as the

Accident Toll Over Weekend

A Union County youth, Bobby Joe Freeman, 10, a Negro of Calton, drowned Sunday while swimming below Calton Dam, eight miles northeast of El Dorado.

During the weekend, three persons were killed in Arkansas accidents, two of them in a traffic accident near Clarksville.

Officers said young Freeman had dived from the concrete superstructure of Calton Dam into eight feet of water and failed to come up. They said he may have hit his head on a rock.

Leslie Fowler, 64, and Jewell Murphy, 47, both of Dover, were killed Saturday when the two-ton truck they were in went out of control and flipped over a 20-foot cliff near Clarksville. Robert Edward Wait, 55, also of Dover, was seriously hurt in the accident.

Small Fire in Ford Pavilion
NEW YORK (AP) — A small fire, quickly extinguished, caused evacuation of from 2,050 to 3,000 persons Sunday from the Ford Pavilion at the World's Fair.

The pavilion was closed for three hours while workmen mopped up water from automatic sprinklers set off by the blaze. One of two rides which takes fairgoers past exhibits was kept closed for the day, because of fear that water-soaked plaster might fall.

The fairgoers in the building were evacuated in about four minutes, before the automatic sprinklers went on.

Would Knock Down Spa Judicial Dist.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court was asked Thursday to strike down a 1963 act which makes Garland County a separate judicial district.

Attorneys for Bruce Cockrell of Hot Springs, who is charged with first degree murder in the slaying of Leon Garner of Hot Springs, had asked 18th Circuit Judge P.E. Dobbs, for a change of site for Cockrell's trial.

Dobbs denied the request which asked for a change to Montgomery County, because the Arkansas Constitution does not provide for moving a trial from a judicial district where the alleged crime occurred.

Montgomery County was part of the 18th district until Act 49 of 1963 limited the district to Garland County. It is the only one-county district in Arkansas.

Dobbs held that Act 49 "has eliminated the power of the court to grant a change of venue.

This infringes on Cockrell's rights, his attorneys said.

Dorsey campaigned in Benton gambling laws were among and Conway. He said that clean elections and enforcement of some alternatives to the administration of Faubus. The governor had said his challengers were offering no alternatives.

McClinton said last week the association had asked its members to vote against Faubus, said the membership is 4,000.

Cuba & Viet Nam Are Real Sore Spots

By JAME MARLOW

Associated Press News Analysis
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson has the problem of trying to take the steam out of Sen. Barry Goldwater's complaints about American foreign policy, particularly on two very sore points: Cuba and Viet Nam.

That he is working at it became clear over the weekend. To bring Fidel Castro tumbling down, Goldwater has proposed various remedies, at various times—from backing an exile invasion of Cuba to shutting off non-Communist trade with it, even if it meant blockading with warships.

Sunday the American republics, through their foreign ministers, agreed not only on condemning Cuba for aggression but on approving strong economic and diplomatic sanctions against Castro's regime. The action had strong U. backing.

It was the strongest move by a conference of the ministers since Castro grabbed hold of Cuba on Jan. 1, 1959.

One quick way to step up and perhaps end the Communist guerrilla attacks on South Viet Nam would be to extend the war to North Viet Nam. But that might bring Red China directly into the war. The Johnson administration has been reluctant to take the chance.

But Goldwater has said the United States "can and should end the fighting in Viet Nam by taking strong, affirmative action." This is just one of the things he has said. He has offered various suggestions on how to do this, too.

Sunday night The Associated Press said the United States and Viet Nam reportedly are about ready to announce new measures to step up the war.

This story said there has been no indication here as to the exact nature of these new measures.

But, the story said, they will emphasize this country's determination to support the freedom and independence of Viet Nam and do not involve spreading the war to the north.

In both cases—Viet Nam and the U.S.-backed O.A. sanctions against Cuba—the Johnson administration could say the new steps were natural developments without any political implications.

But, as Johnson said at his news conference last Friday, "I'm an old campaigner. I've been at it 30 years." Goldwater will have less to complain about if the clamp-down on Cuba gets tighter and the Vietnamese war tougher.

The American states' agreement on Cuba lets them, alone or together, use armed force against Castro if he continues what the ministers officially described as aggression and subversion against other hemisphere republics.

It remains to be seen what they'll do since the actual carrying out of the actions approved by the foreign ministers must be the job of the individual governments.

Nevertheless, Thomas C. Mann, assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs called the conference action a "body blow to Communist sub-

Lloyd Guerin family.
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Robinson and family, Duncan, Okla., were guests at the McQueen-Gibson wedding in Emmet Sunday and also visited in Hope.

"DEAR ABBY"

A MAN'S VIEWPOINT!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I have always considered you the voice of anti-intellectual mid-Victorian morality. As such, you had your finest moment when you advised a 14-year-old boy to run rather than to defend himself against a 15-year-old outsize girl. I say if a girl wants to act like a boy, treat her as a boy. A blackeye and a split lip in childhood is a small price to pay if it prevents a female from confusing her role with that of a male's in adult life.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE L.H.

Dear Abby: Your answer to Mrs. M. burned me up. That's version in this hemisphere."

Mann's appointment to his present job was one of the first actions taken in the foreign affairs field by Johnson after he became president last November.

The mere act of the ministers' agreement won't topple Castro. And at this moment it seems unlikely any of the American states will invade Cuba.

It may even be unrealistic to expect the Latin-American countries which still have diplomatic relations with Cuba to break them off or even to break off all trade with Cuba, at least right away.

Actually, the Latin-American countries do little trading with Castro's Communist regime. But the psychological effect will hurt him and so will any drying up of such trade as there is.

U. officials feel this government's sanctions against trade with Cuba have already given Castro acute economic pains. But now the groundwork has been laid for giving him the miseries.

It's a talking point for Johnson, and it may turn out to be a good one.

In ancient times the Mississippi and Ohio rivers were joined at a point around Helena. Later the two joined at a point a few miles north in Arkansas.

the trouble with society today. You women want to wear the pants, smoke, go in bars and compete with men for jobs, but when the going gets rough you expect special treatment just because you're women. I say that kid who slugged the girl deserves a pat on the back. I'll bet that was the last time that big fat Amazon ever took a poke at him. Sign me.

SWEENEY

Dear Abby: Just read about the 14-year-old boy who was given a beating by his father for socking a 15-year-old girl in the eye. When I was an 8-year-old boy, I was unmercifully tormented by an older, bigger girl. I was ashamed to ask for help because people would laugh at a boy who would let a girl scare him. If only I had had the nerve to pick up a good-sized stick and let her have some good whacks on the shins, maybe I wouldn't dislike women as much as I do today. When an overgrown, aggressive woman provokes a man, she deserves a black eye. For a man to strike a woman of average proportions and ladylike deportment is a despicable act. But today just let one of those other types bug me and I'll kick her right in the seat.

MR. M.

Dear Abby: Our sewing club discussed that letter in your column from the mother of a 14-year-old boy who beat up a 15-year-old girl because she kicked him, hit him and called him names. The boy's father heard about it and gave the boy a good thrashing. You were asked what the boy should have done in such a case and you said that since the girl outweighed him by 30 pounds, and was half a head taller than he was, the boy should have run. In our entire group, Abby, I was the only one who stood by you. All the other women said they thought the boy had no choice but to beat the girl up in order to defend himself. Maybe you and I were not raised the same as most folks, but I still think it is less of a disgrace for a boy to run from a girl than to beat her up.

NELL IN N.J.

Dear Abby: I just finished reading the letter from Mrs. M., whose 14-year-old son gave a 15-year-old girl a black eye and a split lip in self-defense. You said, "Under no circumstances should a boy ever hit a girl." I think you gave some pretty bum advice there, Abby. If a girl hits a boy first, I think he has a perfect right to hit her back. You have a son, Abby; why don't you ask HIM for HIS opinion? I'll bet HE wouldn't run from a girl.

One For Your Wastebasket
Dear One: I just asked him. He said he wouldn't HIT her in the same way he'd hit a boy. But he'd give her a "paddling" she'd never forget. You whiff!

Scrubbed Floors for Innocent Son

CHICAGO (AP)—Mrs. Tillie Majczek, 72, who scrubbed floors 11 years to win the release of her son from prison after he had been falsely convicted of murder, died Thursday.

Mrs. Majczek raised $5,000 and placed an advertisement in a Chicago newspaper offering it as a reward for the capture of the real murderer.

An investigation showed a witness at her son's trial had perjured himself. On Aug. 14, 1945, Joe Majczek was pardoned after serving nearly 12 years.

A movie, "Call Northside 777," was made from the incident.

U.S. Athletes Smash Russians in Track Meet

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—With two world records headed for the books, along with three American marks, the United States celebrated its most decisive Games.

Such was the wind-up of the five victory and the Russians flew home for extra-intensive sixth dual meet between the USA and USSR, whose track and field aggregations are regarded as the most powerful in the world.

A crowd of 55,942 turned out for the final show Sunday in Memorial Coliseum — 50,519 watched Saturday—bringing the two-day total to 106,463.

The final scores: in men's events, the United States 139, Russia 97; in women's events, Russia 59, the United States 40; and over-all, the United States 187, Russia 156. It was the first time the United States won over-all.

The Russians on arrival from Moscow said their team was two months behind the Americans, because of the seasons, and with two months to go before the Tokyo Games, it could appear the Soviets will have a busy time in the immediate weeks ahead.

There were highlights for all and the crowd kept up a noisy rumble of approval each afternoon.

The big roar Sunday went to 27-year-old Jim Grelle for his victory in the 1,500-meter run, and Bob Schul as he and 30-year-old Bill Dellinger ran off with the 5,000 meters.

The day before the ovations went to 18-year-old Gerry Lindgren after his amazing triumph in the grueling 10,000, and the two world record smashers, Fred Hanse, 17-4 in the pole vault, and Dallas Long, 67-10 in

Waivers Asked on Infielder

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds asked waivers Sunday on infielder Bobby Klaus. The club had to get down to the 25-player limit as two others were brought up from San Diego.

Catcher Hal Smith was given his unconditional release Saturday, so the Reds could make room for third baseman Chic Ruiz and first baseman Tony Perez.

Ex-Baseballer Dies at 78

VERMILION, Ohio (AP)—Wilbur Schardt, who pitched for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1911-12, suffered a fatal heart attack Sunday. He was 78.

the shot put.

The main attraction Sunday was Russia's record holding high jumper, Valey Brumel. But Brumel managed 7-3/4 and missed at 7-8 in an attempt to better his mark of 7-5/4.

The American records were set by Ira Davis in the triple jump at 53-11, by Leah Ferris of Honolulu in the 800 meters in 2:08.0, and Willye White of Chicago in the broad jump, 21-6. Miss White placed second at 21-7/4 but it was wind aided and would not hold up as a national record.

There were several outstanding firsts for the Americans in this meet:

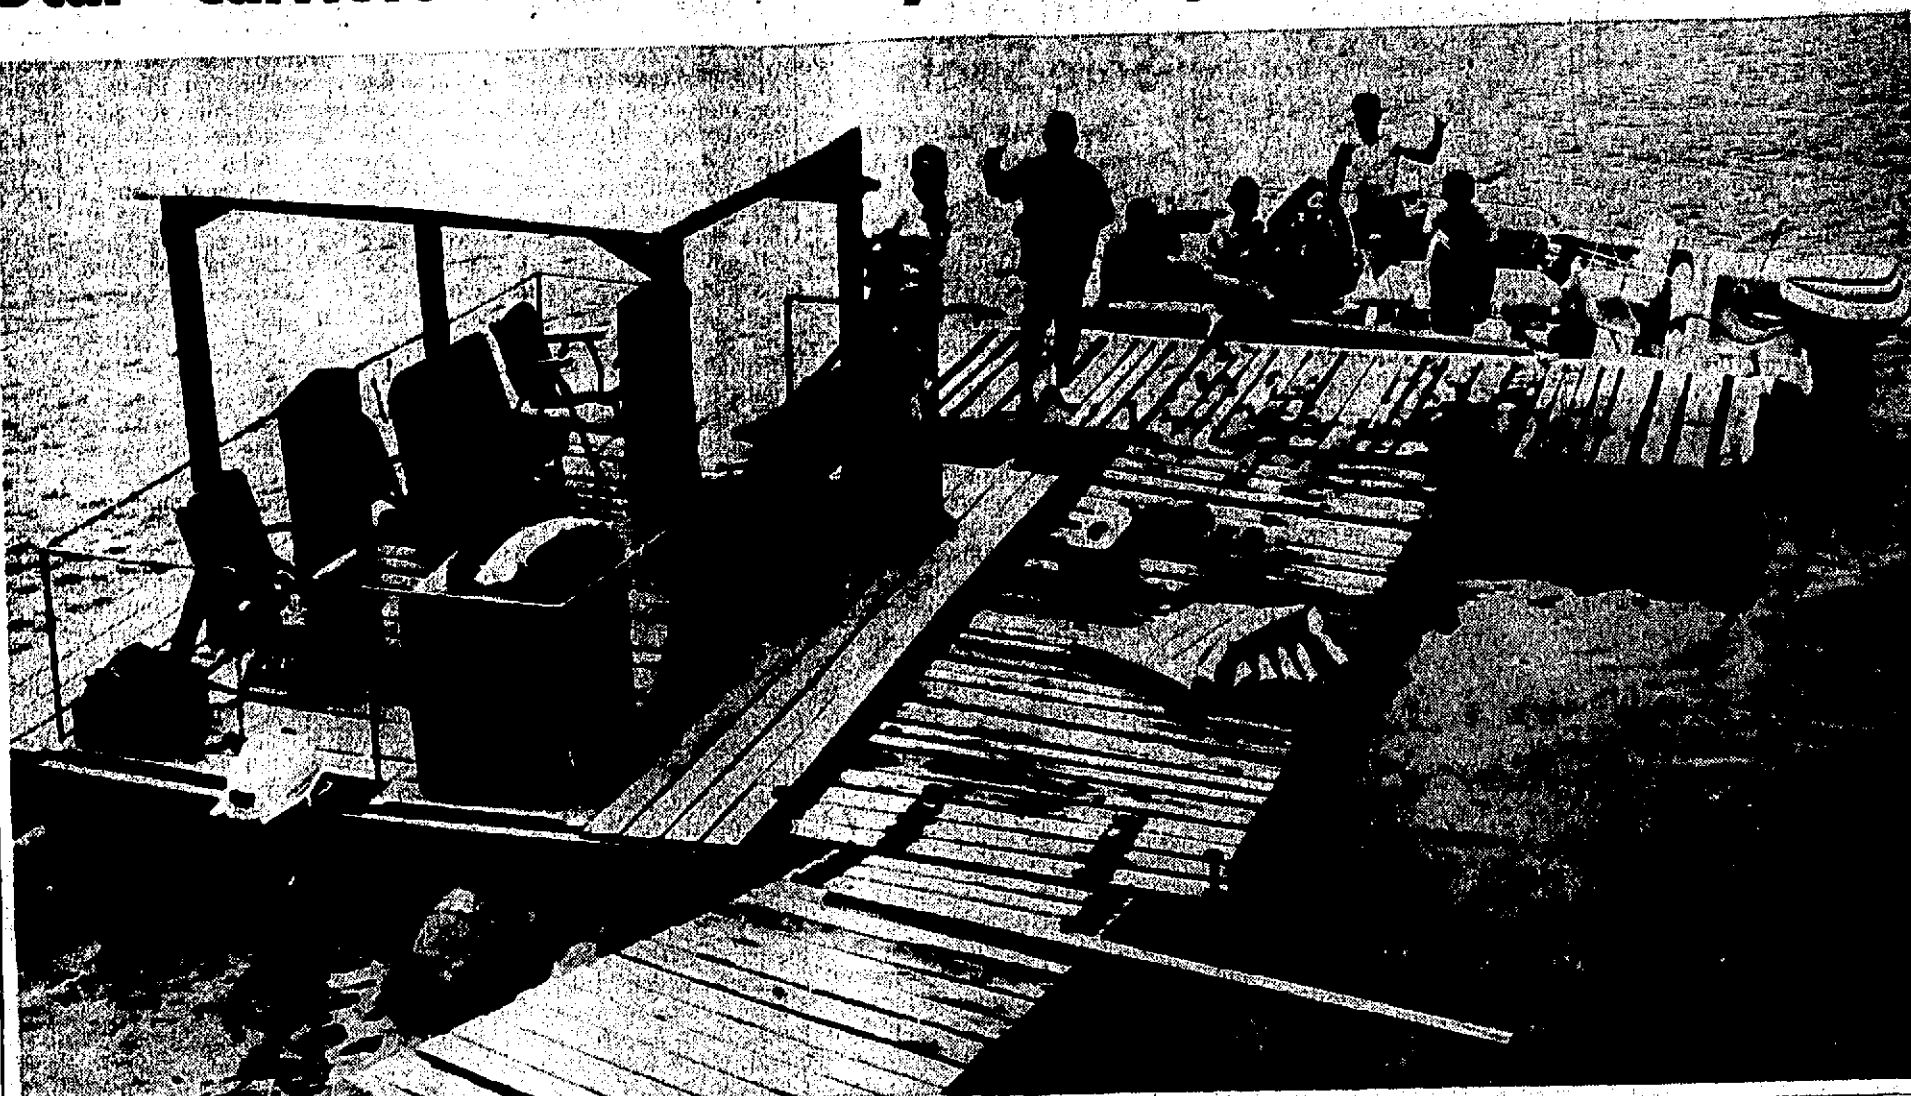

First victories in the 10,000 meters, Lindgren in 29:17.6; in the triple jump, Davis' 53-11; the 5,000, Schul's 13:50.2; the 3,000-meter steeplechase, by George Young, in 8:42.1.

It was also the finest showing by the women's team since the meet began in 1938.

There were disappointments for the Americans, too. Dyrrol Burleson was unable to run in the 1,500 because of a severe virus attack Sunday morning.

Then Ralph Boston lost in the broad jump, Hal Connolly in the hammer-throw and Randy Matson's third place in the shot put.

ONE OF ITS PERIODIC OUTINGS FOR CARRIER boys was held by Hope Star Saturday and Sunday at the employes cottage on Narrows Lake.

PICTURE SHOWS BARGE RENTED FROM SWAHA Lodge, with publisher's runabout in background. The boys took turns between the slow barge and touring the lake in the runabout — and eating at the cottage. What they ate was $30 worth of groceries. In charge were A. H. Washburn, publisher, who charcoaled the steaks Saturday night; and C. M. (Pod) Rogers, Jr., circulation manager, who barbecued ham for breakfast Sunday morning.

THE PARTY WAS CUT SHORT IN MID-AFTERNOON Sunday when high wind and a torrential rain swept the lake. The storm brought rain as far south as Washington.

Rookie Is Man of the Hour for Milwaukee

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Rico Carly, a former boxer, has made a big hit in New York.

Seven hits, in fact. Five with his bat and two with his right.

Carly, a 24-year-old rookie, was all over the place, especially right in the middle of a two-punch fight, as Milwaukee swept the Mets 11-7 and 15-10 Sunday.

Continuing his torrid streak, Carly collected a pair of two-run homers, a double and two singles, driving in eight runs in the two games and increasing his batting average to .342, only one point behind Roberto Clemente's major league-leading .343.

Before he became a professional baseball player, Carly was an amateur fighter in the Dominican Republic. He couldn't understand why he had to train so many weeks for one bout, but he did it anyway. He did it so well, in fact, that he won his first 17 fights.

His career, however, came to an abrupt end.

"One time I lost, and I don't like to lose," he explained.

Carly didn't lose Sunday, then he briefly rediscovered his fondness for fistfights. His New York debut—a few miles from Madison Square Garden—came a few minutes after the nightcap started.

Milwaukee's Denis Menke led off the game with a homer against Frank Lary. Lee Maye, the next batter, was hit with a pitch. When he got up, he started toward the mound but was intercepted by Mets' catcher Chris Cannizzaro, a would-be peacemaker.

Both dugouts emptied, Carly leading with his fleet feet and his right. His first swing caught Cannizzaro, and he followed with one to the jaw of first baseman Frank Thomas. There were no knockdowns.

The partisan crowd of 31,782 booed the decision — Carly wasn't ejected.

But the reception didn't bother the versatile slugger. One out later, he slammed his 12th home run into the left field stands.

In other NL games, St. Louis stopped Philadelphia 6-1 and 4-1. San Francisco defeated Los Angeles 5-2. Pittsburgh whipped Cincinnati 5-1 after losing 7-2 and Chicago blanked Houston 8-0.

In the American League, New York swept Detroit 11-6 and 5-4. Washington beat Baltimore 4-1. Chicago took Minnesota 5-4 in 12 innings and 3-0. Los Angeles trimmed Kansas City 3-0 and 4-3 in 10 innings and Boston knocked off Cleveland 6-1 and 3-1.

Carly drove in five runs in the second game, the last tying the contest 10-10 in the eighth inning after the Mets exploded for seven runs in the seventh. Joe Torre followed with a single, knocking in the lead run. Hank Aaron, who had six hits and six RBI in the doubleheader, added a three-run homer in the ninth.

The Phillies saw their league lead sliced to one-half game over San Francisco as two left-handers stymied them. Gordon Richardson, making his first major league appearance, checked the Phillies on five hits in the opener as did Ray Sa-decki in the second game.

Some faulty Los Angeles fielding helped the Giants halt Sandy Koufax' winning streak at 11. Koufax led 2-1 going into the ninth, but Jose Pagan beat out a bunt, continued to second on Jim Gilliam's wild toss, went to third on a sacrifice and scored as Maury Wills dropped a pop up.

Koufax got another out before Willie Mays doubled across the winning run. Jim Hart followed with a homer, clinching Koufax' fifth defeat against 15 victories. The ace left-hander hadn't lost since May 27.

Bob Veale won his 12th game against six losses with a four-hitter against the Reds. The Pirates scored all of their runs in the fourth inning, three on Willie Stargell's second homer of the day and two on Jerry Lynch's single.

Leo Cardenas cracked his first career grand slam in the opener, connecting off Roy Face in the eighth inning.

Larry Jackson checked the Colts on five hits, outdueling Ken Johnson who allowed six hits. Two of the Cubs' hits, though, were a two-run homer by rlie Banks and a bases-empty blast by Ron Santo.

TO THE VOTERS OF HEMPSTEAD COUNTY:

John T. Honeycutt

In my race for County Coroner I would like to take this means to express my appreciation to you for your support and vote. As many of you know, I am a life-long resident of Hempstead County and am presently employed by Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Home where I have been for the past 18 years.

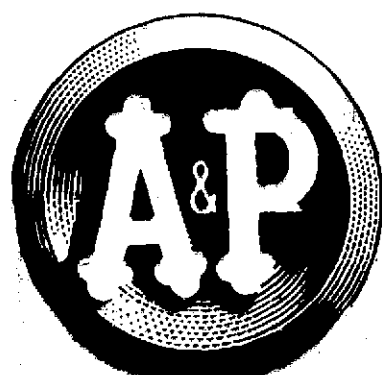

In making this race for coroner I am not unmindful of the responsibility and duty that rests upon the shoulders of the man who occupies this office. Certainly it is one of particular importance, especially where the circumstances of a death seem suspicious. Investigation by the Coroner's Office should in all instances be thorough and complete. The Coroner should work with and cooperate with the various law enforcement agencies. An active Coroner devoted to his job can be a real asset to any community.

I would appreciate your investigating my qualifications and my character. If you find that you believe me to be worthy of this job, I shall sincerely appreciate your vote and support.

Sincerely,

JOHN T. HONEYCUTT

Yanks Unseat Orioles for the American Lead

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

Those double-dealing Los Angeles Angels are getting meaner by the minute.

Their pilot got himself grounded between flights Sunday and the Angels soared right past the fallen leader without a backward glance.

Bill Rigney, the Los Angeles manager, established some sort of record when he was ejected between games of a doubleheader at Kansas City. But Rigney's absence didn't stop the Angels from completing a 3-0, 4-3 sweep over the Athletics and tying a 58-year-old major league record.

The doubleheader victory was the streaking Angels' fifth straight over a two-week period and concluded a 10-3 road trip that has vaulted them into the American League's first division.

The 1964 Yankees were the last club to sweep five consecutive twin bills.

Umpire Al Smith chased Rigney during the home plate meeting preceding the 10-inning nightcap after a heated debate over a first-game decision. Rigney claimed a triple by KC's Chuck Shoemaker should have been called a ground-rule double.

Rigney will be back when the Angels—in fourth place, three games over the .500 mark—open a three-game set against the league-leading New York Yankees tonight at Los Angeles.

The Yanks unseated Baltimore with 11-6 and 5-4 victories over Detroit while the Orioles lost to Washington 4-1 and fell one half game behind. The third-place Chicago White Sox staggered Minnesota twice, 5-4 in 12 innings and 3-0, and Boston swept Cleveland, 6-3 and 3-1.

In the National League, second-place San Francisco trimmed the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-2 and moved within one half game of first-place Philadelphia, which lost twice to St. Louis 6-1 and 4-1. Milwaukee thumped the New York Mets 11-

7 and 15-10; Cincinnati split with Pittsburgh, winning 7-2 before losing 6-1, and Chicago blanked Houston 5-0.

The Angels' first-game shutout boosted their major league-leading total to 16. Seven of the 16 have come since the All-Star break and four—each by different pitchers—during the 13-game road trip.

Aubrey Gatewood, who worked the first six innings, ran his scoreless string, since being recalled from Hawaii of the PCL, to 19 1-3 innings. Bob Lee, who completed the eight-hitter, has not allowed a run in his last 18 1-3 innings.

In the nightcap, the Angels snapped a 2-2 tie on Bobby Knopp's double, a pinch hit single by Ed Kirkpatrick, and two KC errors. The A's rallied for a run in the bottom of the 10th before Bob Duliba, sixth Los Angeles hurler, got the final out.

Joe Pepitone's three-run homer in the eighth capped the Yankees' first-game victory. Tom Tresh and Bobby Richardson each had a single, double and home run while Roger Maris added four singles.

John Blanchard's two-out pop fly in the seventh inning of the nightcap sparked a three-run rally that brought New York from behind. Hector Lopez drove in two runs with a pinch hit single and Phil Linz doubled home the other.

Dave Stenhouse held Baltimore to three hits and won for the first time after six defeats. Ed Brinkman's leadoff home run in the first inning and a three-run fifth gave Stenhouse, who had failed to finish in eight previous starts, all the support he needed.

John Buzhardt tossed a three-hitter for Chicago in the second game after relief pitcher Eddie Sisher's bases-loaded single broke up the 12-inning opener.

Ron Hansen homered and Bill Skowron collected three hits behind Buzhardt. First game starter Gary Peters hit a three-run homer for the White Sox, who trail the Yankees by one game and the Orioles by one-half game.

Earl Wilson pitched a four-hitter for Boston in the opener and Tony Conigliaro and Frank Malzone cracked first-inning homers. Rookie Ed Connolly and Lulipen ace Dick Radatz collaborated for a four-hitter in the nightcap.

Provided further, that the total taxes levied under this Amendment and under Amendment No. 49 to the Constitution on the taxable real and personal property in an industrial district shall never exceed five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof, and the total taxes levied under this Amendment and under Amendment No. 17 to the Constitution on the taxable real and personal property in any hospital district shall never exceed six (6) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof.

"SECTION 3. To such extent and in such manner as the General Assembly may provide, taxes collected under Amendment No. 32 to the Constitution on the taxable real and personal property in any hospital district shall be used for maintaining, operating and supporting district hospitals.

"SECTION 4. The provisions hereof shall be construed as supplemental to all constitutional provisions and legislative acts relating to the subject matters of this Amendment.

The four (4) voting precincts in Ward 1 are designated as follows:

At the last primary election there were more than 1,000 votes cast in Ward 1. The law authorizes the Democratic Central Committee to provide additional precinct where more than 100 votes are cast in a precinct (Section 3-232 A.S.A.)

There were more than 500 votes cast in Ward 4, at the last primary election.

Hence, with the new precincts, the election officials will be able to count the votes and make their returns much earlier than they have been able to do in the past.

It is very important that the voters cast their ballot at the precinct in the area where they reside. To be a legal ballot the voter must cast his ballot in the precinct where he resides.

Television and Radio

EDITORS NOTE-Edgar Buchanan, a veteran character actor, is currently playing a lovable old rascal in CBS' popular "Petticoat Junction." Long before he was an actor, however, he was a professional man, and here says a few words in defense of his favorite doctors.

By EDGAR BUCHANAN For Cynthia Lowry HOLLYWOOD (AP)-Now

that lawyers, surgeons, psychiatrists, clergymen, newspapermen, soldiers, schoolteachers and detectives have all been glorified by television, I'm waiting impatiently for the business to do right by us dentists.

It's a matter of loyalty with me. After graduating from dentistry school in Portland, I practiced for 10 years in Eugene, Ore., before turning actor, and I don't like to see my old dodge slighted.

I like acting fine, whether it's playing the sheriff in a horse opera or Uncle Joe in "Petticoat Junction." But sometimes I have a sentimental yen to get my hand on a drill and my knee on a patient again.

You can understand why one of my favorite roles was the dentist I played in a picture called "Texas," with Glenn Ford and Bill Holden.

I was offered that kind of part only one other time. That was for another Western, but I was supposed to depict the dentist as a drunk, so I turned down the job. It was against my principles.

Anyway, to get back to the theme of this essay, a dentist

Political Candidates

The Star is authorized to announce that the following are candidates for public office subject to action of the Democratic elections in July and August:

For Congress DEAN MURPHY OREN HARRIS

make a dandy television hero. What irks me most is that dentists have always been considered fair game for gags and comedy skits, but nobody ever gives us the realistic dramatic treatment we deserve.

Dental offices are serious places. I had patient sin mine who accused me of killing them there.

Actually, I had a real thrill one night last week when I thought that television had finally come up with a dental epic.

I was scanning the program listings for the evening in my newspaper when I spotted something called "Probe" and starring Dr. Alfred E. Burke. With that title it looked like a sure thing, so you can imagine my disappointment when it turned out to be a guy lecturing on water pollution.

Then I noticed a listing that read "Oral Roberts." Anybody with a name like that has just got to be a dentist. But I tuned in and discovered a revival meeting.

Now comes the happy ending. In the theater listings on the next page I caught sight of an ad for a picture called "A Yank in Viet Nam," starring Marshall Thompson. Now there's one I don't plan to miss. That Thompson is a young, husky, good-looking fella. He's good for our professional image. Looks something like me, too.

At least those movie moguls are giving us dentists a break.

New TV Show Is in the JFK Image

By JAMES BACON

AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP)-"Slattery's People," a new political series, hits television screens next fall.

And, no mistake about it, it's in the JFK image.

Richard Crenna, the star, even bears a slight resemblance in height and coloring to the late President John F. Kennedy.

"I won't be president, not even a U.S. senator but the scripts strive to perpetuate the JFK image of youthful vigor in politics—to prove that politics is an honorable profession for forward thinking young people," says Crenna.

He plays the majority leader of an assembly in a mythical state.

There's a good reason. "If we tie ourselves up with Washington, or a real state," says Crenna, "then our scripts are limited in scope. This way, we can hit hard—and make no one mad, least of all sensitive sponsors who sell their products in every state and Washington."

Crenna, in person an Ivy League type, used to play Luke on "The Real McCoys." Before that, he was the perennial high school sophomore on the "Our Miss Brooks" show.

Owner of the show is Bing Crosby. CBS-TV is no hot on the

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP)-He looked more like an itinerant basketball pro than the winner of this year's Academy Award for direction.

Tony Richardson, un-British in faded blue jeans, royal blue windbreaker and sneakers, was directing tests of Anjanette Comer as a mortuary assistant, and Sir John Gielgud as a corpse for "The Loved One." The director was working on a tiny stage of a Hollywood television studio despite the fact that the film is being released by MGM.

"The Loved One," based on Evelyn Waugh's satire of the Southern California undertaking industry, will be filmed entirely on location. The closest Richardson will come to MGM is the parking lot and the administration building, which will double for headquarters of a "Memorial Park."

Richardson is the man who made "Tom Jones," which brought him ever yaward in sight, including the Oscar. He had no inkling that it would prove such a success.

"After I finished making it, I thought it was a mess," he recalled. "It seemed all jumbled and disjointed, and I didn't see how anyone would make any sense out of it."

"Tom Jones" was shot entirely on location, he said, using houses of the period of the Henry Fielding novel. In some cases sets were improvised within the houses by using screens and backdrops.

He estimated the film's cost at $1,300,000 and hears that its predicted gross ranges between $25 and $30 million. "Incredible," he commented.

"The Loved One," which also stars Robert Morse and Jonathan Winters, appears to be proof of that. After that he plans two American subjects: "Reflections in a Golden Eye," a Carson McCullers story to be filmed in Georgia; and James Baldwin's "Another Country," for shooting in New York City.

"I plan to make four films before I undertake 'The Charge of the Light Brigade,'" the director said.

Richardson would like to film the Crimean war story in the actual locale, making use of Russian cavalry. He said the Russians have offered to cooperate, but he has his doubts.

The script, he explained, would detail what he called colossal stupidity on both sides of the conflict.

show that it is placing it in the 10 p.m., EST, slot Monday nights.

That doesn't make Crosby too happy because the main competition is "Ben Casey" on ABC-TV. Crosby owns that one too.

As Bob Hope told Crenna: "Crosby doesn't pay income taxes. He just calls up the government every year and asks it how much it needs to make up the deficit."

Crenna's mythical state has a metropolitan city, mining, varied industry and agriculture.

"It's practically a mythical country," he says.

Scripts take an offbeat slant toward current issue. One involving civil rights goes after a playboy Negro representative who cries race every time he runs afoul.

"Slattery, that's me," says Crenna, "straightens him out by showing that he is doing the cause of his people harm—and I tell him straight from the hip. No words spared."

KING KILLER

By Guy W. Van Schrittz

In corny carney terms Fritz Hardy was a rube. A sucker. A typical easy mark. So I wasn't surprised when I found him frowning grimly, coating his money as he shuffled his plowshare way through the inch-thick dust away from the fairgrounds.

"Make your bets, gentlemen," Slick Scifers intoned his shell game spiel in the distance. "Look before you leap. Make your bets, gentlemen."

"How much did he take you for Fritz?" I asked. "Thirty-two dollars, near as I kin figger."

Fritz was no wizard at mental mathematics, but don't sell him short. Fritz knows his business—horses—as was vividly verified by his highly successful two section horse spread down on Tulsa-rosa creek.

Fritz was very much upset. Not so much by the loss of the money as by the realization that he had been taken in by a crook at the crook's own game.

I went home with Fritz that evening. He drove all the way in a half-daze. I don't think he slept a wink all night. All the next day his brow was wrinkled with deep study. At evening a hand came reporting an accident. A wild three-year-old had broken a leg in the bronc pasture.

Forcing his mind away from the problem he had studied for 36 hours, Fritz gave heed to his rider.

"Call the vet," he ordered. "Do what he tells you. Shoot the animal if you have to." Then suddenly alert and concerned, he demanded: "Wild one you say? Which?"

The hand gave details. Injured animal identified, Fritz settled back unconcernedly once more—only to rear back up and slap hands on knees.

He beamed at me, his old hospitable self once more. "I got it figured," he said.

At 10 o'clock next morning, we were in town in Fritz's buckchested gelding tied to the singletree on the driver's side.

In those days carnivals traveled in horse-drawn caravans. Each show had its own team,

Legal Notice

TO: ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN AND Jimmy Wilder (Father or Guardian) Portia Ann Gray (Mother) OF: James Edward Gray.

WARNING ORDER Take notice that on the 24 day of March, 1964, a petition was filed by Al Graves, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney in the Juvenile Court of Hempstead County to have a certain child named James Edward Gray declared a dependent and neglected child to take from you the custody and guardianship of said child and to appoint for him some suitable person as his guardian or to place said child in some suitable institution or home in this state for the care and guardianship of dependent and delinquent children. wagon and living quarters on wheels. Slick Scifers, carrying his only business and professional equipment—shells and money—in his pants pocket, sported only a flashily painted, rubber-tired, two-horse buggy.

It was a cool, sunshiny morning with the first tinging faint of fall in the air. A few carnival customers walked aimlessly toward the fairgrounds.

Slick came out to the road as we neared his stall. When he recognized Fritz apprehension flitted across his face. His guilty conscience told him Fritz had come to demand his money back.

But Fritz only hauled up his horses with a hearty hail. "Hi," he returned Fritz's greeting. Then his eyes focused on the chestnut. "Say, Mister! That horse you got there. That chestnut. I've got a dead ringer for him. How, you swap him for a sorrel to match that'n of yours?"

In his element, Fritz said he weren't fignerin' on swappin' that hoss—but now mebbe I could use a nice chestnut and how about that?"

"Well, mebbe," Slick pretended to be interested, eyeing the chestnut while "I'll go get my team."

Horses fetched; Fritz got out and looked them over, lifting feet, hoisting tails, curling lips back.

Playing his game Fritz pointed out displaced pasterns, hidden spavins, suspected heaves in Slick's span.

Spectators gathered, greatly enjoying the by-plays. The principals dickered, bickered and disputed for 30 minutes and finally swapped, Fritz's chestnut.

Always an exhibitionist, Slick promptly hitched his now nicely matched pair of chestnuts to his gay little rig.

Thinks Christ Would Use Science Now

RELIGION

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—If Christ went to the World's Fair says Dr. Ira Lee Eshleman, He would march right up to the unisphere and preach to the crowd in parables illustrated from science.

His English, religionwise, might sound more like Madison Avenue than King James version. That's because He believed in talking to people in language they could understand. "He would use fair pageant and personalities, but His message would be basically the same," says Dr. Eshleman. "The heart of man, like God's, does not change with the passing of time."

Dr. Eshleman, who founded non-denominational Protestant Community and Winter Chautauqua in Boca Raton, Fla., 14 years ago, is producing weekend sacred concerts at the fair's Protestant center and a Pavilion.

In addition he conducts television interviews with celebrities such as actress Dale Evans; and Walter Judd, former congressman from Minnesota. "I try to discover how they found peace with God and if they have a message to share with others. I think Robert Moses, the fair's president, is to be complimented for introducing into this fair a voice for God such as none other in history," the minister says.

Religious exhibits include the Protestant and Orthodox Center, the Vatican Pavilion, the American-Israel Pavilion, Pavilion of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, sermons from science, the Russian Orthodox Chapel, the pavilion of the 2,000 tribes—sponsored by Wycliffe Bible translators—and Christian Science and evangelist Billy Graham.

"I'm for anyone who does good Christian work," Dr. Eshleman says. "If Paul—Christianity's Aristotle and Demosthenes—were alive today he would do what Billy Graham is doing."

If Christ were to come back, says Florida's 1963 Man of the Year, "He would make himself accessible as a great physician to men wherever they were in need. Most of His work was done outside the temples of religion, you know."

"There would be the biggest traffic jam in history if Christ stood on a spot at the unisphere

French Chief Can't Stand to Be Ignored

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Charles De Gaulle got stuck with an idea; now he's reworking it. The last thing he wants to be ignored; but he's being ignored.

The French president Thursday proposed this second news conference of 1964 the neutralization of all Southeast Asia, including Viet Nam. It was an old idea.

He had proposed it at his first news conference of 1964 last January. The United States brushed off the idea then. It's brushing it off now.

The trouble was that 10 years ago 14 nations at Geneva reached an agreement supposed to keep Southeast Asia peaceful. It's been anything but.

Washington's view was, and is, that Red China and the North Vietnamese broke the agreement. So why think a new agreement would be observed?

France had held Indochina as a colony since the 19th century and showed no signs of granting independence until some Indochinese got fed up.

Some of them, Communist-led under Ho Chi Minh, fought the French 7½ years and finally wrecked them in 1953.

This was humiliation or the French who had to be bailed out in two world wars. Now under De Gaulle, they aspire to world leadership again.

The Geneva Agreement divided Viet Nam into North and South Viet Nam, with Chi-Minh still in charge in the north. The French pulled out.

The North Vietnamese decided to take over South Viet Nam, which needed help to survive. The United States stepped in and has been helping out since.

It seems clear from this history that if there was a new agreement and the United States pulled out, the North Vietnamese wouldn't let peace last long.

This time—adding a new touch—De Gaulle wants the United States, France, Russia and Red China to guarantee the peace.

De Gaulle's proposals on Southeast Asia suggest he can't reconcile himself to the thought that France should, or must, keep its nose out of Asia permanently.

It is part of the pattern of his mind. He wouldn't accept a nuclear test ban treaty, insisting instead that France must build its own nuclear arsenal.

At the same time he wants a close tie-up with Germany. But this wouldn't be on an equal partnership basis if France had nuclear weapons and Germany didn't.

And if West Germany tried to

Television and Radio

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—This

film community, television's principal factory producing more than two-thirds of its network entertainment, currently is as busy as a department store the week before Christmas.

All the major film studios and most of the smaller ones are in full production swing, turning out the 68 series which will be the backbone of the nation's fireside relaxation from September on.

Actors in new shows are getting the feel of their parts. There are a lot of new shows in the making—35.

Performers in returning shows are getting back into the harness of shooting schedules that give them only brief peribuild the Russians would go through the ceiling. And so would De Gaulle, probably.

The Frenchman seeks a kind of French-German alliance that would dominate their smaller neighbors. But German Chancellor Erhard wants no part of it.

He knows West Germany is too close to Russia or sacry and wishes to have the protection of the United States.

De Gaulle wants that protection but apparently wishes he didn't.

ods of rehearsal and studying lines.

Television press agents are proclaiming that each show will be the hit of the season. Only the cynical will recall television's annual high mortality rate.

Behind all the activity, network executives and sponsors are hoping their selections will prove popular, and dreaming that one, maybe, will turn out to be another "Beverly Hills-ies."

If a new trend is notable now, it is toward comedy—fantasy, following the success last season of "My Favorite Martian." This season we will have four more of similar type.

Comedy, for still another season, will be the most popular type of program in terms of numbers. There will be two program innovations—ABC's "Peyton Place," a half-hour show seen twice a week with a continuing story like the day-time serials, and a 90-minute NBC show, "90 Bristol Court," which is really three half-hour comedies related by the same address for all characters.

Great professional interest is focused on two glamorous action-adventure series: NBC's "The Rogues" about international confidence men with Charles Boyer, David Niven and Gig Young, and its James Bondish "The Man from U.N.C.L.E." The glossy, sophisticated line

Wasn't Supposed to Get Wet

GLOBE, Ariz. (AP)—Twelve-year-old Peter Grothe of Globe has a cold, and was on strict orders from Mom to stay out of the water over the weekend.

However, while playing along the banks of Pinal creek Sunday, he saw 5-year-old Beth Golden being swept downstream. She had been wading in the creek near her home and was carried out of the shallow water into the swift current.

Peter jumped in the water, grabbed the girl and held tight as they were swept another 150-feet downstream. Then he heaved the girl scramble ashore.

"Boy, I'll get it when I get home," said the boy to a sheriff's deputy. "I've got a cold and wasn't supposed to get wet."

could be the television trend a year hence.

The summer months have proved pretty quiet.

NBC's "On Parade" and CBS' occasional Meredith Wilson shows were pleasant variety programs, but CBS' "On Broadway Tonight" was a bit disappointing, partly because of the unexceptional acts but mostly because host Rudy Vallee proved stiff, inept and had a hard time reading his cue cards.

"Vacation Playhouse," a collection of unsold pilots, did little except demonstrate why the shows never found buyers.
